

Please deny BellSouth's petition to end regulating broadband service. I believe that this regulation is the only way that there will continue to be competition and that consumers will have a choice to receive varying degrees of quality Internet Service Provision over broadband.